

Important Notice regarding handle position

The pull handle mounted on the SLUN door must be positioned above the bottom pivot of the mounting plate on the door. See illustration below.

The door may not open, or may experience difficulty opening the door if the handle position is below this point.

